In the spirit of the Thanksgiving just past We would like to take this opportunity to thank our Baronial officers.

Without their hard work and support We would not be able to accomplish a single blessed thing. We hope everyone had a good Thanksgiving.

The holidays have begun. Which means Yule is upon us! The is going to be an extra special Yule as that weekend we will learn who Their Majesties have chosen to lead the Barony. No matter who Their Majesties, in Their Wisdom, choose We are certain they will bring a revitalizing energy and a new approach to how the Barony is led.

At Yule we will be commemorating Diwali, the Indian Festival of Lights, where the victory of Light over the Dark of winter is celebrated. During the event We, in consultation with the candidates for the next Excellencies, will be choosing the Barony's Archery, Arts & Science and Bardic Champions, We look forward to seeing the skills and talents Our incredible populace will no doubt display. Those interested in competing should have already sent Us Letters of Intent but We are always willing to consider entrants even on the day of the event so long as the competition has yet to occur. And as always we are looking forward to what We are sure will be an outstanding feast by the Souteneurs de Gloutennerire, where we will taste the best Indian inspired dishes.

From the Quill of Their Excellencies

A mere six weeks after Yule will be Nottingham Coill's Birthday and Investiture where the Barony's "Nexcellencies" will be invested by Their Majesties. We look forward to seeing all of you at Yule and Baronial Birthday!

Yours in Service,

Elphin Delia

Nottingham Coill Baronial
Birthday and Investiture

Greetings to All,

I hope that all had a good Thanksgiving and with that we head into December. The first weekend of December will be Unevent and then the following weekend will be the Barony's own Yule Toy Journey which is themed around Diwali this year. At Yule Toy Journey his Majesty will announce the results of the Baronial Polling as to who the next Baronage for the Barony will be. That leads into the next Baronial Event which will be the Nottingham Coill Baronial Birthday the weekend of January 20th which will see the investiture of the new Baronage as well as the stepping down of their Excellencies Elphin and Delia. A great thank you to their excellencies for the many years of service to the Barony.

The Barony still has an opening for a Baronial Chatelaine. Please contact Baroness Delia, Baron Elphin, and myself if you are interested in taking in filing the office.

Safe travels to all and have fun and make stuff.

*In Service,
Likerion*

Sing for Fair Atlantia

Words by Lady Vani ka Bhediya

One night at Falcon Cree's Arts and Sciences night, we were discussing music and decided it would be great to have a marching song for Atlantia. This came to me all in a rush, tune included! Over the following music nights, a few words were tweaked and (after much debate) an ideal tempo agreed upon. I am pleased to present "Sing for Fair Atlantia) sung to the Traditional tune known as "Rose, Rose".

*Here we stand in white and blue
Shields and swords and hearts strike true
All together, join as one
To sing for fair Atlantia*

*Archers follow at our backs
To stop our foemen in their tracks
Chargers, trebuchets, catapults all
Do sing for fair Atlantia*

*March and fight for glory's sake
But do not scorn those in our wake
Honor to our foes we show
And sing for fair Atlantia*

*Crafters make our world shine bright
Bards spin stories dark and light
All together, join as one
To sing for fair Atlantia*

*Here we stand in white and blue
Shields and swords and hearts strike true
All together, join as one
To sing for fair Atlantia*
