A Note from Their Excellencies

Greetings to Our beautiful barony!

As February draws to a close we hope everyone has stayed warm and dry through our unusually wintery winter. We've been incredibly grateful to all of you who have been able to travel and spend time with us at events this winter. We're looking forward to a fun, if busy spring and seeing even more of you at events! Remember that we view the Baronial Day shade as a place for all our populace should you choose to join us there!

Speaking of all the fun events of February, now is a great time to send in award recommendations! Whether It's for hard work, deeds of honor on or off the field, great shows of prowess or artistry, or acts of courtesy; we'd love you to send in award recommendations. We know Their Majesties would love to receive award recommendations as well. Neither We nor Their Majesties can be everywhere, we rely on you to help us recognize the good works of our populace.

In March we're especially hoping that some of you will be able to give us some lovely recommendations from either the Dragon's Fair Demo, or Gulf Wars. Both are going to be super busy and super fun.

And Lastly: We have not yet had any entrants for Baronial Brewing Champion. As a reminder we will once again be choosing our Brewing Champion at Dragon's fire, which is coming up faster than we think! The competition is 2 brews: 1 bottle of your best, 1 bottle of a non-alcoholic brew. If you'd like to compete please send us a statement of your intentions, which can be as simple as "I, <name>; would like to compete to be the next Baronial Bardic Champion" Send this via Messenger, email (Baroness@nottinghillcoill.atlantia.sca.org and Baron@nottinghillcoill.atlantia.sca.org) carrier pigeon, carved into a stick, Runes on a rock, whatever method of communication you prefer. We're really looking forward to tasting your amazing work.

As always: have fun, make stuff, do stuff, and we look forward to seeing you at a future event.

We remain In Service,

Lifarion ⁊ Eiv'iafua

Wosadmf ⁊ Wosadmitsa of Nottinghill Coill

From the Senechal's Pen

Greetings to Nottingham Coill

It is almost spring and soon we will be enjoying much better weather and after that, complaining of the heat. There were many good representative of our barony at Ymir 51 and thank you for so many of you who volunteered.

Many of you will be heading to Gulf Wars to enjoy a week of SCAian goodness but if you remain behind please consider being involved with the our event demonstration at Eastwind Castle in Trenton, SC scheduled for Friday & Saturday, March 13 & 14.

In April we will have Dragon's Fire V: Skyweaver Training Grounds, held on Saturday, the 18 th , at the Maynard Community Center in Easley, SC. Please go to https://atlantia.sca.org/event/?event_id=695b0d54 for more information and registration information.

The Kingdom's Spring Crown Tournament will be nearby in Rock Hill, SC hosted by our neighbors in Charlesbury Crossing. Held May 1-3 please go here for more information: <https://springcrown2026.com/>

And then Ritterwald will be hosting Not Quite Quarterly Bragging Rights in Aiken, SC. Please go here for more information: https://atlantia.sca.org/event/?event_id=690b64c5

The annual business meeting was held 23 February 2026, the minutes of the meeting are below.

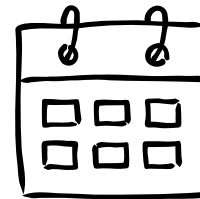

We have some required changes coming to our financial policy created by the SCA corporate office. We will start holding quarterly business meetings.

Please review the list of vacant offices in the Regnum, we need you to volunteer to fill these deputy positions. These deputy positions allow us to continue building and growing our Barony.

Roderick

Lord Roderick Mund

There were 12 members of the barony present.

The Exchequer:

Reviewed financial statements

Reviewed new corporate financial policy and how that affects the barony & cantons. And emphasized that deposits must be within 48 business hours! This affects autocrats, reservationists, heralds Heralds: New court report forms are available on the website. Do not use ESP. Always check the website for the latest forms, do not trust that what you have on your computer is the most recent.

Submissions on outdated forms are rejected automatically.

Chatelain: A walking tour for newcomers was very successful at Yule Toy Tourney. All the newcomers have been in contact with the Chatelain and have followed up with more events.

He

suggested some type of guidon or blazon to display as they moved about, think “we’re walking, we’re walking.”

Giulia approved for Emergency Exchequer Deputy. No nays. Roderick motion, Simone second. This is a new requirement in the corporate financial policy.

Reimbursement to Roderick for purchase of Newcomers materials given to Chatelain.

Approved.

The Chatelain suggested that it would be beneficial to recruit canton/baronial officers if interested people could shadow officers to understand jobs better. If you are interested in a deputy position, reach out to a baronial or canton officer to inquire about spending time with that officer during an event.

Their Excellencies would like to see Quarterly business meetings happen. (I will get on that)

It was requested to have a Heraldry consultant table for baronial events.

There was discussion for awards for children from outside the barony. We have such an award for adults but not for children. Our Herald is working diligently on that idea.

The meeting ended at 7:47, less than an hour.

Submitted, Lord Roderick Mund

Greetings!

Have you got a question you've wanted to ask?

Are you curious about how things got started out in the SCA?

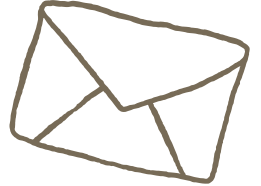

Do you wanna know how a certain process works?

Easy enough to ask, easy enough to answer!
Starting in January, I plan on putting together a section called

Siegfried's Supply of Answers

I'll be answering anonymous questions monthly in the Quill!
All I ask you send your question via email to siegfriedvangotem@hotmail.com and you could see your question answered in the Quill.
I'm happy to discuss things you see or hear about in the SCA!
And I look forward to hearing from you soon!

In Service, I Remain
